

New Bedford Jan 6th 1840 — Monday morning —

Dear Anne,

You will I trust get a bundle from me by Joseph Longdon at noon, & at night if I don't have long letters from you my disappointment will be very great.
Sunday (yesterday) morning I went to the Unitarian church & heard the chor-uson preach very well — I would not go to the Episcopal church nor either of the orthodox ones, by way of expressing my disapprobation of their <sup>not</sup> reading the Anti-Slavery notice — Mrs Howland went up early in the morn-ing & waited till after meeting was begun in the porch, to send me off in case I came there — for she had been telling Mr Snow how angry I was with him & thought it would look more consistent if I staid away. In the afternoon I was vaccinated at Mrs Emersons. Her baby was done at the same time. By the way she has a very nice good baby — & a very pretty one too — that is it promises to be so — The battle of the 30th comes on Wednesday, I would give a great deal to be there — as soon as it is over write me a full account of it & despatch it to me at once I will send it to Aunt Mary - be sure of this - Will Dr. Farnsworth be present. Make chorus do as well as she did at the last meeting - That style tell her suits her best - I send a letter for Mr. Emerson which unless he happens to call, or you see some of the representatives before ~~for~~ <sup>of sending I mean</sup> appear you have an opportunity, send ~~to~~ the post-office at once -
